Jude 17-23

17 But you must remember, beloved, the predictions of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ. 18 They said to you, “In the last time there will be scoffers, following their own ungodly passions.” 19 It is these who cause divisions, worldly people, devoid of the Spirit. 20 But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit, 21 keep yourselves in the love of God, waiting for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ that leads to eternal life. 22 And have mercy on those who doubt; 23 save others by snatching them out of the fire; to others show mercy with fear, hating even the garment stained by the flesh.

Have you ever wanted to be a hero?
Do you still want to be a hero?

What does Jude tell us to do in response to the divisions and strife in the church?
Why?

What do you make of this plan of building, praying, obeying and waiting?

Why doesn't Jude stop there, only offering Christians hope and a plan to live in Christ?
What does he tell us to next?

What does showing mercy look like to you?
How do we then help doubters, those in the fire, and those immersed in sin?
Is it our job?
If it is, how are we able to do it?
